SINGYA SEIKA | Fruit Jelly

Combining local creativity with Japanese craftsmanship, Singya Seika perfectly embodies the essence of "production"—the meticulous work of artisans passed down through generations—and "sweets"—the carefully crafted flavors of desserts. They select the finest fresh fruits from Taiwan to create fruit jellies made from apples, grapes, citrus, kumquats, and grapefruits, preserving the sweet and sour taste of seasonal fruits and allowing the fruity aroma to blossom in your mouth. The packaging features a green and earthy color scheme, with line drawings depicting fruit imagery. The jellies are wrapped in a net that resembles fresh fruit, showcasing a playful freshness reminiscent of a fruit stand.

YU YUE LOU Cantonese Cuisine | Sticky Mochi Cake Gift Box

The Sticky Mochi Cake Gift Box, launched in collaboration with Yu Yue Lou Cantonese Cuisine, interprets the elegance of traditional Cantonese dishes through a fresh, modern aesthetic. The packaging features a "bronze coin" seal that symbolizes wealth and good fortune while also hinting at the "sticky money" meaning associated with the glutinous rice ingredients. The vibrant design elements perfectly blend with elegant traditional motifs, and the gold foil printing enhances the visual quality. The gift box is made from thick paper to ensure sturdy support and protection, preventing deformation during transportation and storage, making it an ideal choice for festive gifting.
